Free credit repair advice available at homebuyers seminar

First-time homebuyers and those hurt by the foreclosure crisis can receive help boosting their credits to qualify for home loans at a free seminar on Wednesday.

The Inland Empire Economic Recovery Corporation, which is hosting the event, features as a speaker Petra Bujanda de McConnell, a credit analyst with West Coast Credit Solutions. Bujanda de McConnell will provide information about credit restoration and offer tips on how to boost a potential homebuyer's credit score to help them qualify for a loan. She will also meet with attendees one-on-one.

The Inland Empire Economic Recovery Corporation is a nonprofit that seeks to stabilize Inland Empire neighborhoods and communities by preventing and reducing blight.

The seminar begins at 7 p.m. at 1881 Commercenter East, Suite 230, in San Bernardino. Seating is limited. RSVP to Julie Harris at 909-890-0841. Spanish speakers can call Petra Bujanda de McConnell at 909-810-3060.
